

2018 WY/UT Ag Days

January 23-24, 2018

10:00 am—3:00 pm

Roundhouse Evanston, WY

Lunch included with RSVP

You can attend any or all of the sessions — come and go as fits your schedule.

However, you must RSVP to be included in the lunch sessions.

Phone: 307-783-0570 by 9 am on Monday, Jan. 22 to reserve your meal

(You can leave a message you get the voice mail)

Cat Urbigit is an author and photographer based on a western Wyoming sheep ranch. She raises working livestock guardian dogs and has traveled the globe learning about guardian dog use in large carnivore country. Urbigit is also the co-owner and editor of The Shepherd magazine.

January 23th

	Track 1	Track 2
10:00 AM	Why grow relationships with the next generation? - John Hewlett and Caleb Carter - UW	Irrigation of Forages - Niel Allen -USU
11:00 AM	Cattle Market Outlook - Bridger Feuz - UW	Raising Backyard Chickens - Hudson Hill - UW
12:00 PM	Lunch &amp; Keynote Speaker Guardian Dog Use in Large Carnivore Country - Cat Urbigit
1:00 PM	Rancher Rules of Thumb - Bridger Feuz - UW	Backyard Livestock Production - Hudson Hill - UW
2:00 PM	Winter Livestock Feeding and Fetal Imprinting - Chance Marshall - UW	Irrigated Alfalfa Variety Performance - Earl Creech - USU

January 24th

	Track 1	Track 2
10:00 AM	Weed ID and Control - Chris Aimone - Uinta County Weed and Pest	Sage Grouse and Grazing - Eric Thacker - USU
11:00 AM	Quantifying Deworming in Wyoming Sheep - Whit Stewart - UW	Litigation Between Western Water Sheds Project and the Federal Land Management Agencies - Beth Burritt - USU
12:00 PM	Lunch & Introduce new Rich County Agent
1:00 PM	Landscape Based Riparian Grazing - Glenn Owings - UW	Modern Meat Cuts - Warrie Means - UW
2:00 PM	Bee Keeping 101 - Jaydee Gunnell - USU	Q&A About Meat - Warrie Means - UW