

The USDA's Risk Management Agency and RightRisk invite you to learn strategies for better managing risks in your operation. Participate in Surviving in Agriculture to discover the right level of risk for you in this interactive, hands-on workshop

Tuesday | January 22nd 2019 | 6:00P - 8:30P
Delta Career Advancement Center
1696 N. Clearwater Ave | Delta Junction, AK

The Basics of Estate Planning

Jeffrey Tranel, Agricultural & Business Mgt. Economist, Colorado State University

Are Your Farm Enterprises Generating Profits?

John Hewlett, Ranch/Farm Management Specialist, University of Wyoming

Wednesday | January 23rd 2019 | 5:30P - 8:30P
Kenai River Center
514 Funny River Road | Soldotna, AK

Understanding Your Ag Income Taxes

Jeffrey Tranel, Agricultural & Business Mgt. Economist, Colorado State University

Are Your Farm Enterprises Generating Profits?

John Hewlett, Ranch/Farm Management Specialist, University of Wyoming

Friday-Saturday | January 25-26 2019
2019 Alaska Peony Growers Association Conference
Lands Inn Resort | Homer, AK

RightRisk offers innovative risk research and education programs and materials to help farmers and ranchers understand and explore risk management decisions and evaluate the effects of those decisions for themselves.

How Much Risk Is Right For You?

Register to attend at: <https://RightRisk.eventbrite.com>

— SCHOLARSHIPS are available —
 contact: Jeff Tranel | 719-251-0990 or
jtranel@erightrisk.com

